CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

16 April 1973

MEMORANDUM FOR Dr. Henry A. Kissinger
Assistant to the President
for National Security Affairs

SUBJECT

Message

25X1

The following message, from our Chief of Station in Saigon, was sent in response to your request on 2 April in San Clemente.
 asked that this message be delivered to you.

25X1

"With reference to our discussion 2 April on whether General Abrams did or did not anticipate NVA Easter offensive, I have now located the Abrams message I mentioned to you.

25X1

"In this message General Abrams anticipated major enemy assault across DMZ; reviewed most recent intelligence, disposition of enemy forces and POL deliveries to North Vietnam and concluded: 'It is clear from the foregoing intelligence indicators that the enemy's land campaign has begun. All of the combat elements are in position or approaching their final attack position. The assault phase of the campaign can be set in motion at any time that the enemy high command decides to do so. The enemy decision to initiate the assault phase will no doubt be timed to be most advantageous to the enemy.'"

"When Abrams' message shown to me (I was in my first month in Vietnam at that time) I was most impressed and notified CIA of existence of message and recommended that it be obtained from JCS.

"Problem that now confronts us is not to relive the past, but to ensure that field assessment of imminent danger is brought to attention of policy makers in timely and usable fashion."
